

Law Access –Senior Civil and Migration Lawyer Vacancy – FAQ

When does the vacancy arise?

From 1 July 2020.

How long is the contract?

The contract is for parental leave cover up to 12 months.

What is the salary?

The salary ranges up to $48.17 per hour depending on experience.

The total full-time annual salary is up to $93,930 per annum plus superannuation depending on experience.

We have Public Benevolent Institution status so you can salary package the full allowable amount.

You would also be eligible to package a meal and entertainment card to the full allowable amount in addition to your allowable salary packaging amount.

The salary packaging provider we use is the Community Business Bureau and they have a calculator on their website which you can use to better understand the benefit that salary packaging would bring you:

<https://www.cbb.com.au/individuals/salary-packaging-calculator/>

The position is advertised as full-time - part time and flexible working arrangements will be considered. What does this mean?

Law Access will consider flexible and part-time work where a candidate demonstrates the relevant skills.

Where are you located?

We have a silent address near the CBD as applicants do not attend our offices in person. We will advise you of our address if you are selected for interview .